

PERSONAL.

William Bradley is in Boston.
Mrs. Sidney Morris is critically ill.
F. K. Brown is visiting in Rutland.
Clarence Miller is at home from New York.

Ernest Pratt is spending the week in New York.

Major Childs and family spent Christmas at Chester.

Miss Jessie Gregg gave a French eucure party last evening.

Miss Perigo spent Christmas at her home in Brookport, N. Y.

Dr. Elmer Eddy of Gardner, Mass., was in town briefly this week.

Elmer Hunt left Tuesday for Fitchburg, Mass., where he is to live.

E. A. Woods has his son and daughters with him for the holidays.

C. H. Leighton of Brooklyn was at the Brooks House over Sunday.

Miss Mary Ayres of Springfield, Mass., is spending a week at home.

Miss Jennie Atherton of Turners Falls is visiting Mrs. Wm. S. Howe.

Miss Perry, the teacher, is spending her vacation at her home in Bethel.

Will Devine of Springfield, Mass., is at home for a two weeks' vacation.

Miss Emma Houghton entertained a party at cards on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Whitney entertained the Washington party Wednesday night.

Mrs. Frank Platts goes Monday to her home in Bennington for a few weeks' visit.

Alfred Jefferson has been pushed a part of this week by a slightly sprained ankle.

Gov. Fuller will speak at the commercial travelers' banquet at Burlington to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Powers of New York and their daughter are in town this week.

Miss Josie Foster of Pittsfield, Mass., is at home for a vacation of two or three weeks.

George Barrett has moved from 28 Green street into the Tripp house on the same street.

Miss Kate Galvin has returned to Middlebury, accompanied by her niece, Katie Galvin.

D. E. Tasker was called to Hillsboro, N. H., this week by the death of his brother's wife.

Miss Dora Mitchell completed her business course at Boston and returned home Saturday.

Mr. Griffin of the Chase Turbine company of Orange, Mass., has been in town this week.

Miss Penttiss, assistant housekeeper at the Brooks House, is visiting in Ashburnham, Mass.

D. F. Curtin has given up the hotel business at North Walpole and returned to Brattleboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davis of Ithaca, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Davis's mother, Mrs. L. M. Cook.

Mrs. Will Brookington went to New York Wednesday to have her eyes treated at a hospital.

Miss Abbie Fuller is at home from Vermont Academy for the Christmas and New Year vacation.

Will Perry has been visiting in Boston this week. F. C. Robinson will spend the New Year there.

The many friends of Charles H. Thompson now hopefully expect his recovery from his recent illness.

Mrs. D. A. Ryan of Athol, Mass., is spending the holiday week with her sister, Mrs. N. M. Perry.

Miss Nellie Eddy returns from Boston this week to attend a New Year reunion at the Eddy farm.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bogle returned Saturday after a visit of four weeks in Manchester, this state.

D. A. Young of the firm of Young & Knowlton, has been in Boston buying heavy winter goods.

Edward Sprague, assistant superintendent of the New England Telephone company is in town today.

The marriage of George Rhode and Miss Mary Barry is announced to take place on the evening of Jan. 10.

Edward Ripley, who has been a clerk in Puffer & Co.'s store, has returned to his home in Walpole, N. H.

Judge R. W. Clarke has gone to Hornellsville, N. Y., to stay with his daughter, Mrs. Ackler, until spring.

D. O. Dutton and wife of Bridgeport, Conn., have spent the week with O. R. Dutton on Vernon street.

Mrs. A. E. Atkins of Minneapolis, has been called here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Allen.

C. H. Robb, who went to Florence, Mass., recently, has applied for admission to the Hampshire county bar.

Miss Emma Dutton was called to New York Tuesday on account of the critical illness of her sister, Mrs. Streeter.

Rev. F. L. Phalen has been in town this week arranging for the removal of his household goods to Concord, N. H.

Gerry Messer played at a German at Claremont, N. H., last night and will play at a ball at the same place to-night.

Miss Louise Larkin, who has been studying music at the Boston conservatory of music, is expected home to-morrow.

The Trump club were most delightfully entertained by E. E. Perry at his home on Third street on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fidler left Monday for a two weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. S. K. Durrell, in Attleboro, Mass.

J. F. White of Huntington, P. Q., has been in town a few days, called here by the critical illness of his sister, Mrs. Johnson.

James Williams, the New London Northern conductor, is now employed, with his son Charles, on the electric road in New London.

The Sixteen club, composed of members of the High school class of '88, held a reunion with Miss Lulu Brackett Saturday evening.

H. F. C. Todd will move Monday from Mr. Randall's house on Oak street to the house on Walker place which he bought recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newton came up from Fisher's Island, Monday night, on a visit of combined business and pleasure, and will return to-morrow.

Charles Guild of the Phoenix job office, who had his foot crushed in a paper cutter eight weeks ago, walked out a short distance this week for the first time.

J. D. Whitney was summoned by telegraph to Boston Wednesday, owing to the serious condition of his wife. Yesterday E. D. Whitney was also called there.

Rev. Father Long, a Brattleboro boy who has been parish priest at Fairfield, this state, for some time, has been appointed pastor of the Catholic church at Proctor.

Richard M. Hunt of New York has been chosen the architect to build the new Fogg museum of fine arts at the Harvard college. About $150,000 will be spent on the building.

The young men of Mrs. J. E. Hubbard's class in the Universalist Sunday school made her a surprise visit Monday evening and presented her with an oak and plush rocker.

PERSONAL.

James Eastwood, who came home from Tufts college the 17th, has been seriously ill with tonsillitis at the home of his father at West Brattleboro, but is now slowly improving.

Emma Lundberg, who was at home from Farley, Mass., for the Christmas vacation, is soon to have a position in the schools at South Hadley, Mass., under Prof. MacLachlin.

Conductor George Spafford greeted his Brattleboro friends yesterday for the first time in eight weeks. Mr. Spafford has recently recovered from a threatened attack of pneumonia.

Miss Nellie Goodrich of Newton, Mass., and W. B. Goodrich of Boston have been visiting their parents. The latter was accompanied by his fiancée, Miss Wallace of Philadelphia.

Rev. J. H. Habbitt was chosen an honorary member of the Brattleboro union of Sunday school convention at Manchester, Centre last week, after he had delivered his address there.

Wm. S. Newton, the town clerk, has been confined to his house the past ten days with an attack of rheumatism, but he is now recovering and hopes to be at his office in a few days.

Dea. Horace Bissell, one of the long time and highly respected residents of Wardsboro, whose death is elsewhere recorded, was the father of E. B. Bissell and brother Mrs. E. B. Barrett of this place.

Henry Simonds, who has been bookkeeper for his father, H. W. Simonds, since the purchase of the grocery store from Stickney Brothers, left Friday for Chicago, where he will engage in business with his uncle.

A few friends were entertained at Mrs. G. A. Boyden's Wednesday evening, and on the following evening the same party were at Mrs. Geo. H. Ryder's, the gatherings being in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Powers, who are here for the holidays.

Marion, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wilcox, celebrated her third anniversary Wednesday afternoon, by giving a doll's tea party. Each of her young friends were given little bon-bon souvenirs of the occasion.

Gov. Fuller and Gov. Tuttle of New Hampshire are to attend the supper of the fish and game league at the Cheshire house at Keene, Jan. 11. Gov-elect Smith of New Hampshire and Gov. Russell of Massachusetts have been invited.

Cards are out for the marriage of Dr. Henry M. Augur of New York and Miss Helen M. Augur of Brattleboro, to be held next Thursday afternoon. Miss Warren is a daughter of Mrs. Jennie T. Warren and has been a teacher near Palmer, Mass., for some time.

H. H. Thompson has rented the house in which he lives at the corner of North Main and Terrace streets for a term of three years. A part of the upper tenement, vacated by Mrs. O. H. Chapin, will be occupied by Miss Mary Stearns and aunt, Miss Henrietta Emery of Windham.

It is understood that Gov-elect Smith of New Hampshire, who selected May 1, J. P. Wellman of Keene to be inspector general on his staff. Mr. Wellman is city clerk at Keene and state inspector of rifle practice. The inspector general has important duties to perform, for which Maj. Wellman is well qualified. He is brother of Merchant H. P. Wellman of this town.

The Congregational Sunday school presented Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Thompson with photographs of Raphael's "Transfiguration" and "St. Cecilia," taken from the original paintings. These pictures were given as Christmas gifts, and in recognition of Mr. Thompson's work as assistant superintendent, and of Mrs. Thompson's services as pianist. A box of hand-some roses was sent with the pictures.

The St. Alban's Missionary society last Friday presented a special offering to the treasury, returned here last night after having been confined at his home in Brattleboro for some two months, with a severe case of blood poisoning, arising from various causes, which was a direct result of a wound received in the army. The colored received many hearty congratulations on his recovery and return to duty.

A pleasant family gathering was held at Mrs. Orrell Brown's on Brook street, Wednesday evening. Those present were: Mrs. Orrell Brown, Mrs. Lydia Reed of Brattleboro, Mrs. Helen Miller of Minnesota, Mrs. Arabella Tilton of South Duxbury, Mass., Mrs. Persis Eames of Brattleboro and Mrs. Brown. Rarely have family ties been drawn more closely together than on this occasion.

Among the Christmas visitors in town were Fred Colburn, Nicholas Taylor, Joseph Perry and Maurice Austin of Springfield, Mass.; J. C. Bowler and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowler and family of Boston; T. J. Doolin of South Framingham, Mass.; Hattie Jones of Boston; John and Patricia Bowler of New Haven, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carey and Patrick Forrester, the telegraph operator, of New York; Alfred Warren of Florence, Mass.; Samuel Kirkland of Boston and Theodore Kirkland; Elmer Munroe of Worcester, Mass.; Miss Sarah Benson of the Nute High school, Milton, N. H.; Ina Freeman of Watertown, N. Y.; William Corser of St. Albans; O. F. Benson of New York; Charles Chapin of Boston; and Mrs. M. E. Sears of Holyoke; Thomas Sears of Coventry, Conn.; Lieut. Col. and Mrs. James Lillis of Rutland; Evelyn Merrill of Bridgewater, Mass.

There will be no services at the Unitarian church next Sunday.

The ladies' aid society will meet in Grand Army hall at 7:30 next Monday evening.

The 4 o'clock meeting at the Y. M. C. A. room on Sunday afternoon will be a special literary meeting, with singing by the German-Latin quartet, and a short talk by General Secretary Simmonds.

Services in St. Michael's Episcopal church Sunday, Jan. 1, feast of the Circumcision: At 9:30 A. M., Sunday school; 10:30 A. M., morning prayer, sermon and holy communion; 7 P. M., evening prayer.

A New Year's sermon will be preached by Rev. F. W. Sprague at the Universalist church Sunday morning. "The cracking of thorns" will be the subject of the lecture in the evening. Everybody welcome.

The regular meeting of the woman's auxiliary occurs next Tuesday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. parlors at 4 o'clock. As matters of importance regarding the approaching convention are to be considered, a large attendance is desired.

At the Baptist chapel to-morrow night there will be held a watch meeting, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. After a half-hour spent socially the time will be divided, and services of praise, prayer, testimony, etc., under different leaders, with brief intermissions between, will be held until midnight. A cordial invitation is extended to all, of whatever church, who are interested in the service.

A Mining Camp Battle.

The San Juan mining camp has followed the precedents of all great mining camps by baptizing itself with human blood. In a battle Tuesday over 100 shots were exchanged. Eleven were killed and a large number wounded.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

Observance of the Festival Day in Brattleboro.

Services at the Churches Sunday and Special Exercises Monday by the Sunday Schools.

The Methodist Church.

At the Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Webb preached a Christmas sermon in the morning from the text, Luke ii, 10-11: "And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." Mr. Webb said that if we take a sweep of the world's history, we find that the advent of Christ is the one great event. He referred to the influence it has had upon art, and the foreign lands, and to the universality of its celebration at Christmas time. He then traced the history of the Christmas celebration from its origin in the year 98, and the time when it was first celebrated in this country. He described the manner in which the observance is held in various countries. Then let us go back to Jerusalem at the first Christmas time, he said, and as we gaze at that little child, let us not leave the manger until we can cry, "All Hail to the power of Jesus' name." As we think of him now crowned with glory, who was once crowned with thorns. We have reason to wish all a Merry Christmas.

Monday night a large audience attended the children's Christmas service in the church. The good ship "Glad Tidings" was upon the platform laden with gifts for the children. During the evening Mr. Webb was happily surprised by a gift of $52 from his parishioners.

The Episcopal Church.

Christmas day was duly celebrated in St. Michael's Episcopal church by two public services. At 10:30 A. M. morning prayer was said, followed by the Christmas sermon, and the celebration of the holy communion. In the afternoon, at 2:30 P. M., the morning services that of benediction of gifts to the church was used, being the dedication of a baptismal ewer and alms basin, presented by the parishioners and friends of the parish living elsewhere. The text of the rector's sermon was from the book of the prophet Micah, v, 2: "And thou Bethlehem Ephrath, though thou beest the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall He come forth unto me, that is to be ruler in Israel, whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting." The sermon set forth not only the doctrine of the incarnation, which the Christmas season emphasizes, but also the doctrine of Christ's eternal sonship and preexistence before he was born of the virgin, which were proved by scriptural citations. Both his manhood and divinity were dwelt upon, and in closing reference was made to the practical duties of the Christian at this holy season. At 2:30 P. M. the rector held a special service and administered the sacrament of holy baptism to three children, after which followed the order of evening prayer with Christmas carols, and addresses from Rev. A. D. Brown and the rector, who then received the offerings of the children and closed the service with prayer and benediction.

The Universalist Church.

"The relation of Christ to life" was the subject of the sermon by Rev. F. W. Sprague at the Universalist church Christmas morning. The text was Matthew ii, 1, and Luke ii, 20, where the visits of both the wise men and of the shepherds to the infant Jesus are described. The preacher discovered two distinct and opposite views in modern thought in regard to the relation of Christ and Christianity to life, both of which views in the light of the text were seen to be incorrect. On the one hand it is held that Christianity is too low for the educated intellect, and that man by vigorous pursuit of scientific and philosophic research rises above the simple truths of the gospel, leaving it fitted only for the weaker sex and for children. On the other hand it is claimed that Christianity enjoys a monopoly which is entirely too high for the life of man as he is here, here he is here by temptation and impelled by heredity. "Gods and angels" might imitate Christ's example, but for common mortals it is much too high. It was noted as a significant fact that right at the cradle of Christ and Christianity both extremes of society were interested and present. The wise men of the East, versed in all arts, sciences and philosophy, had left their books and sunny abodes, and at the plain, matter of fact shepherds, who left their grassy fields and grazing flocks and went to do him honor. Both the learned and the unlearned were present and found in their long-looked-for Messiah. The speaker then proceeded to show how Christ and Christianity were adapted to the life of youth, maturity and age, and how Christianity adjusts itself to the needs of every individual. Christianity takes such forms as conform to the needs of our lives; Christ does not always address the same powers of mind, nor enjoin the same work for every one. Christianity has the truth, the character, the love, the peace, and the hope for future life, which all souls naturally and persistently long. The best educated can be taught something of life by Christ, and the uneducated are none too plain to receive wisdom and sympathy from him.

Monday evening a novel and exceedingly pretty entertainment was held in the church vestry for the children. Evidently the masons had been at work, for a fireplace and chimney were there. Santa Claus appeared, but alas! he had forgotten the presents. He was equal to the occasion, however, and called a fairy to his services. The fireplace was knocked down and, behold! the bricks were found to contain bon-bon and handkerchiefs, which were distributed among the children. Then there were musical selections, together with recitations and a tableau, "Playing grandmas."

The Roman Catholic Church.

Large congregations attended the different services at the Roman Catholic church. Decorations of green wreaths, potted plants and cut flowers were arranged about the altar. High mass was celebrated at midnight, when Rev. Father Cunningham delivered an impressive sermon in reference to the Christmas holiday and the feast of Christmas. Leonard's second mass was rendered by the choir, assisted by Mr. Machan and Sewall Moore, the chorists. At 9 o'clock, service Sunday morning the singing was by the children's choir. At high mass at 10:30 the choir again rendered Leonard's second mass. At 7:30 the choir sang St. John's mass, solo, O Salutaris, by Daniel Martin and Rossi's Tantum Ergo by the choir.

The Baptist Church.

At the Baptist church the Christmas observance began Sunday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Mr. Parry, delivered a Christmas sermon, taking his text from Luke ii, 13, 14, "And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."—a sermon full of the Christmas thought and spirit. Rev. A. Mac-george assisted at the morning service. The seasonable music by the choir was rendered with unusual excellence. Festoons of laurel ropes and wreaths of evergreen made up the simple decorations. The Sunday school gave in the evening a concert exercise with music and delightful exercises by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o'clock the school, under the supervision of the pastor, exercised by the children of the infant department, and the choir repeated some of the music of the morning.

The real Christmas celebration, however, came on Monday, and those who have seen members for many years in the Sunday school, in looking back have failed to recall any Christmas exercise so altogether delightful as the one presented this year. From 6 o'clock to 8 o